1. Claims 1-55 have been examined. Application 09/981,653 (SYSTEM AND METHOD FOR CASINO MANAGEMENT) has a filing date 10/18/2001 and Claims Priority from Provisional Application 60241326 (10/18/2000).

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
- I. Claims 1-6 drawn to determining one or more incentives for each of the plurality of patrons based on the analysis of said patron data, classified in class 705, subclass 14.
 - II. Claims 7-31 and 37-43 drawn to a method for allocating resources in a casino, classified in class 705, subclass 8.
 - III. Claims 32-36 and 44-55 drawn to a method for displaying data, classified in class 715, subclass 526.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention II has separate utility such as a method for allocating resources in a casino. This separate use distinguishes the invention of group I from group II since the feature of allocating resources is not limitation of group I.

Inventions I and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as a method for displaying data. This separate use distinguishes the invention of group I from group III since the feature of displaying data is not a limitation of group I.

Inventions II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as a displaying data. This separate use distinguishes the invention of group III from group II since the limitation of displaying data is not limitation of group II.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143). The Examiner wants to mention that he only examines applications classified in class 705, subclass 14. If the Applicant selects group II or III, the Examiner would transfer the Application to the correct art unit.
